2012 Ice Show Precision Line Information

Open to skaters in Basic 5 and above

Begins Sunday January 8 to March 18, 2012 from 1:25-1:50pm

Skating on a precision line is an important commitment. It is mandatory that all practices be attended. Practices are currently scheduled for Sunday at the JFK Coliseum from 1:25 – 1:50 PM. An absence of a line skater can make it unsafe for other skaters. Therefore, a skater will only be allowed to miss two practices. Please note, safety is a top priority for the precision line. Skaters move faster and more closely together than they do in standard group numbers. On January 8, skaters will be evaluated and the coaches will decide whether the skater will skate on the junior line or the senior line.

Please be advised that additional floor and ice practices will be called for during the weeks prior to the show. Some of these floor practices will be held after on-ice practice on Sundays, some on-ice could be held on early weekday mornings before the hour of 7AM, or may take place in the evenings depending on ice availability. SNHSC does allow for and realize that school schedules may be conflicting.

There is a non-refundable $85.00 fee to skate on the precision line. That fee goes toward the cost of ice regularly scheduled practice ice and costume rental. An additional fee per ice time will be required for any additional rink use times that the coaches may need. You may pay $42.50 with contract and make a final payment of $42.50 on Feb. 12, 2012 or pay the full fee.

I agree to abide by the attendance guidelines set above. I also agree to accept the decision of the professionals for my placement in the precision line.
